- Phone Scam -

Residents in Eagle County have been receiving telephone calls from a person who is falsely identifying himself as an Eagle County Deputy. The caller tells the citizen a warrant will be issued in their name for Failure to Appear for Jury Duty. The fictitious caller then advises the citizen they can clear up the warrant by purchasing a money order at a department store and giving the card information to the caller.

Residents should never provide anyone with their social security number or other personal information over the phone. Neither the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office or the Cherry Hills Village Police Department contact citizens by phone asking for money to clear up legal matters including summonses and warrants.

Residents are asked to file a complaint at the FBI Fraud website www.IC3.gov if they receive phone calls of this nature. Residents can also contact the Cherry Hills Village Police Department at 303-795-4711.
